

CONGRATULATIONS TO RYAN CIVIELLO!
Student Employee in Undergraduate Admissions
Salem State University's Student Employee of the Year 2010-2011

Here are some comments made on Mr. Civiello's nomination forms:

"Without a doubt Ryan has been the driving force behind the program's incredible success. This is a direct result of his personal determination. He takes the initiative with program development, ambassador training, and problem resolution."

"Ryan displays a maturity that I have rarely encountered during my extensive interaction with college students. He is able to communicate with the admissions ambassador team when performance issues arise in a very mature and nurturing manner, which has assisted our ambassadors in improving their performance without disrupting the cohesive environment."

"I have been extremely impressed with Ryan's skills, abilities and motivation in this position. He has been instrumental in the development of the selection and training process for all of the ambassadors."

Once again, please join us in recognizing Ryan, Student Employee of the Year, 2010-2011.
