

JUDICIAL PROCESS

All students are expected to abide by Federal and State laws and the regulations of Salem State College relevant to the Graduate School. Violation of these may be cause for judicial action conducted within the principles of due process. Copies of the procedure may be obtained at the Graduate School Office.