

The Department of Foreign Languages and the Graduate School at Salem State College Present

The Honorable Enrique Iranzo
Consul General of Spain in Boston

will speak on

Spain-U.S.: A Complicated Marriage

Thursday, April 7, 2005, 5:30-6:30pm
Central Campus Recital Hall

Mr. Iranzo's talk will cover immigration and terrorism issues as they relate to the post-September 11th international climate and the March 11, 2004 bomb attacks in Madrid. Mr. Iranzo has served in diplomatic posts throughout the world, including as consul to Hong Kong, Munich, Berlin and Santo Domingo.

The talk will be in English with a question-and-answer period in English or Spanish.

Open to the public. All welcome!

For more information and maps, go to <http://www.salemstate.edu/languages/colloquia.htm>