

Field Education Narrative Reflections Logs: Foundation Year

These logs are passed into Seminar Instructor every other week in Semester I and once a month in Semester II.

Name _____ Weeks: _____

Client/Project Assignments:

Learning goals addressed:

Reflect on the major goals and outcomes of supervision:

Reflect on how academic class material integrates with field experience:

Social Work Value/Ethical dilemmas or questions raised:

Self-awareness/professional use of self:

Other reflections regarding your learning and placement experience:

Field Education Narrative Reflections Logs: Concentration Year

These logs are passed into Seminar Instructor at the end of each field placement month.

Name _____ Month: _____

Client/Project Assignments:

Learning goals addressed this month:

Reflect on the major goals and outcomes of supervision:

Reflect on how academic class material integrates with field experience:

Social Work Value/Ethical dilemmas or questions raised:

Self-awareness/professional use of self:

Other reflections regarding your learning and placement experience:

Field Education Narrative Reflections Logs: Advanced Standing Bridge Seminar
These logs are submitted to Seminar Instructor every week in Semester I; every other week in Semester II.

Name _____ Weeks: _____

Client/Project Assignments:

Learning goals addressed:

Reflect on the major goals and outcomes of supervision:

Reflect on how academic class material integrates with field experience:

Social Work Value/Ethical dilemmas or questions raised:

Self-awareness/professional use of self:

Other reflections regarding your learning and placement experience: